in reconstructing the history of modern spiritualism scholars have largely focused on its anglo american french and german developments often overlooking the italian context modern spiritualism in italian literature and culture 1765 1969 challenges this perspective by examining the italian case as a space of intersection between transnational currents of thought and deeply rooted cultural traditions from the enlightenment to the occult revival of the 1960s modern spiritualism in italy engaged with scientific discourse philosophical speculation literary imagination and catholic doctrine producing a hybrid intellectual landscape that remains largely understudied this volume traces the circulation and transformation of spiritualist ideas across different media and disciplines analysing their impact on literature psychology and science by situating italy within the broader european and transatlantic networks of occult knowledge modern spiritualism in italian literature and culture provides a new vantage point from which to rethink the historical evolution of modernity belief and the supernatural this handbook offers an analysis of the relation between football and politics based on over 30 case studies covering five continents it provides a detailed picture of this relation in a wide number of european american african and asian states as well as a comparative assessment of football in a global perspective thus combining the general and the local it examines themes such as the political origins of football in the studied country the historical club rivalries the political aspects of football as a sports spectacle and the contemporary issues linked to the political use of football by following the same structure with each study the volume allows for the comparison between largely investigated cases and cases that have seldom been addressed the handbook will be of use particularly to students and scholars in the fields of sport studies political science and sociology as well as cultural studies anthropology and leisure studies
